ADVENT

Advent comes from the Latin word that simply means “coming”. The Advent season is a season of waiting. It’s designed to cultivate our awareness of God’s actions —past present and future.

We read Old Testament prophecies and cling to promises to come. We live between Advent and Advent. Jesus, God the Son, came into the world as babe. In his second Advent, he will return in power and glory to swallow up death and wipe away every tear and make all things new.

So we celebrate God’s victory, in Christ, over Pharaoh and Israel’s oppressors, over sin and death and we look for, long for, work for, pray for the full implementation of this victory.
